THE MINERS DISPUTE

The following starmed by Mr. Gorge F. Barris an ex act from the representatives of the anthracite mine workers and the representatives of the operators in Philadelphia on Thursday, April 8. In discussing with Mr. Lewis the general labor situation in the anthracite region, Mr. Beer spoke of the conditions that had prevailed nuder the award of the Authracite Coal Strike representatives of the anthcacite mine award of the Authracite Coal Strike Commission of 1902. He said:

Commission of 1902. He said:

"The highest wages ever known have obtained for six years, and we believe will continue for three years more. The labor leader who can go to his organization and say: "Gentlemen, I have secured for three years more the wages that you obtained in the highest times of prosperity in this country," this leader stands on a more solid platform than any one of your profession ever stood belabor leader who can go to his organization and say: 'Gentlemen, I have secured for three years more the wages that you obtained in the highest times of prosperity in this country,' this leader stands on a more solid platform than any one of your profession ever stood before or will ever stand again.

"To be entirely frank with you, gentlemen, there are some things in the strike commission's awards that do not suit either side. That is always so in a matter of decisions of controversies. Taking a broad and generous view of the situation in this country today, however, and of the state of the market for the last six years, this award of the strike commission has been the most satisfac tory solution of the labor problem on a large scale that the world has ever seen. "Has it not insured peace and quiet and justice and fair dealing to as great an extent as can be obtained in human af-Do you know any case, anywhere, in so large an industry as this, involving hundreds of thousands of people, where such results, with such benefits to the workingman and satisfaction to the community, have been brought about? And don't you recognize that the public will judge of you most severely—because they know of these results—if for any reason you do anything to destroy a system that generally has worked so well?

"I think you are sesuming a fearful responsibility. In the light of my ex-perience, which had been large—covering forty years of dealing with labor problems—I unhesitatingly say that, while there are some things in the award of the strike commission that I would have different, yet in its general results it is the wisest solution of the labor

BOY DROWNED.

Elmer Lacy, aged 13, was drowned yesterday as the result of the capsizing of a small rowboat in the waters of the tidal basin of the Posmac river, near the Georgetown channel. Two other boys, Homer Lacy, the victim's brother, and Dewey Nell, who were also in the beat, narrowly escaped the same fate, and would have been drowned but for an heroic rescue performed by two negro men who were near the scene. The accident was caused by the boat striking a pile. None of the lads could swim and were in a desperate plight when the and were in a desperate plight when the boat upset. For a time they clung to the overtorned craft, crying for assistance, but soon the boat rank with the lads struggling for life. The colored men who were fishing along the water front, swam to the aid of the boys, rescuing two of them. Elmer Lacy sank the third time before help could reach him.
